Certain Fortunate People

CERTAIN fortunate people seem to be born with an appreciation for the fine things of life . . . an instinct for good food, good clothes, good music, good books and good friends . . . it is not by accident that the GIBSON has been the choice of such people for four generations.

GIBSON hospitality, rare even in little things, reflects something we have learned of their tastes . . . this hospitality is only one of the reasons why the GIBSON offers discriminating people every feature that makes for better living.

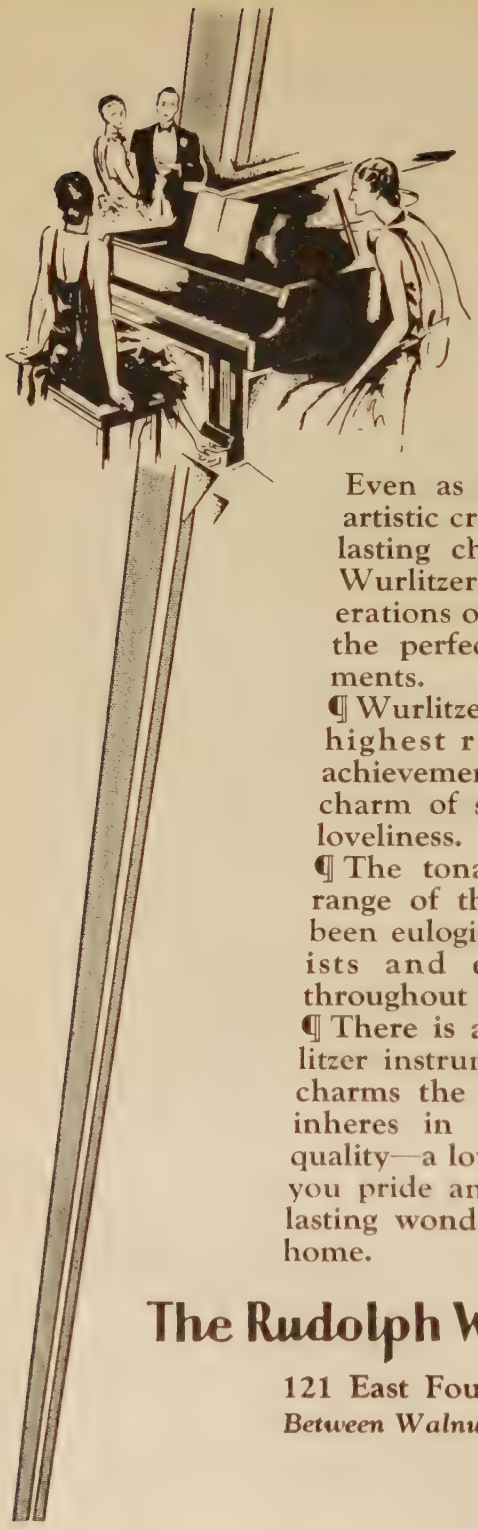
THE present edition of the Blue Book is offered to its subscribers and the public with the conviction that it will be found indispensable to the woman of fashion, and constantly useful to the man of business. It has been compiled with the greatest care, and its information will be found to be strictly up-to-date.

Even with the greatest care, and with every facility, errors of omission and commission will inevitably creep into such a compilation, and it must be attributed rather to the difficulty of obtaining information than to any deliberate intent to exclude. Any errors or omissions will be cheerfully corrected if brought to the attention of the editor.

It is hoped that the book will meet the expectations of the large number of patrons who have encouraged its publication for many years, and that it will prove valuable as a reference, useful as a guide, and interesting as a social souvenir.

THE EDITOR.



Such beauty of tone

Even as the old masters designed artistic creations of rare beauty and lasting charm, so the House of Wurlitzer has devoted seven generations of skilled craftsmanship to the perfection of musical instruments.

¶ Wurlitzer pianos reflect the very highest refinements of artistic achievement and possess a tonal charm of surpassing richness and loveliness.

¶ The tonal beauty, volume and range of the Wurlitzer Harp has been eulogized by renowned harpists and eminent conductors throughout the world.

¶ There is a beauty in every Wurlitzer instrument that compels and charms the eye. A beauty that inheres in dignity, warmth and quality—a loveliness of tone to give you pride and satisfaction and the lasting wonder of beauty in your home.

An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. Many prudent parents are guaranteeing the education of their children by means of life insurance. Parents are grateful when this idea is explained to them.

An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. Many prudent parents are guaranteeing the education of their children by means of life insurance. Parents are grateful when this idea is explained to them.

An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. Many prudent parents are guaranteeing the education of their children by means of life insurance. Parents are grateful when this idea is explained to them.

An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. Many prudent parents are guaranteeing the education of their children by means of life insurance. Parents are grateful when this idea is explained to them.

An Education Is the Best Legacy

Every thoughtful parent realizes that a few thousand dollars invested in a child's education are worth infinitely more than many thousands later in life. Many prudent parents are guaranteeing the education of their children by means of life insurance. Parents are grateful when this idea is explained to them.
